

So far, I think that the do not call list is working for those of us in New Jersey..We should always be protected from those annoying telemarketer calls if we choose.Taking that right from us is wrong.The plan has worked so far for my family.With the exception of one caller which I have already reported..So pleas let's keep it going..Thank you.